TEST COMPLETION REPORT

What is Test Completion Report?

Test completion reporting is a process where by test metrics are reported in summarised format to update the stakeholders which enables them to take an informed decision.

Test Completion Report Format:

- Test Summary Report Identifier

- Summary

- Variances

- Summary Results

- Evaluation

- Planned vs Actual Efforts

- Sign off

Significance of Test Completion Report:

- An indication of the quality

- Measure outstanding risks

- The level of confidence in tested software